

Mark Snyder
Chief Financial Officer
REJUVENATE Kidney Transplant Solutions

Mark Snyder has a wealth of leadership experience in U.S. and global benefits and finance. For more than two decades, he held leadership positions at Owens Corning, a Fortune 500 manufacturer with more than 15,000 employees in 27 countries, where he most recently served as director of total rewards. Mark holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Bowling Green State University and earned his CPA while working at a large accounting firm. He has seen firsthand how Rejuvenate can help employers lower health care costs and dramatically improve the lives of their employees with kidney disease when he implemented Rejuvenate while at Owens Corning. "I am privileged to join this pioneering and innovative team in the transplant and benefits space. I believe there is no limit to the future of this organization and its ability to save lives."